

Shoreside Expeditions Conditions of Contract

In arranging for Shoreside Expeditions for guests on board our vessel, Orion Expedition Cruises and its respective agents do so as a convenience. Orion Expedition Cruises and its agents have no ownership or control over the means, transportation or other services furnished in connection with such Shoreside Expeditions. The owners or contractors providing such transportation or other services are independent and control the terms and conditions contained in the applicable tickets and tariffs of the shore side contractor. The guest, by accepting the service of Orion Expedition Cruises, its agents or vessels in arranging for Shoreside Expeditions, hereby agrees that Orion Expedition Cruises shall not be liable in any respect for any personal injury, death, property damage or any other liability arising from the selection of any Shore Expedition taken pursuant to this contract. Guests acknowledge that Orion Expedition Cruises cannot control the providers of Shoreside Expeditions and releases Orion Expedition Cruises, its agents and vessels and agree to hold Orion Expedition Cruises and its respective agents harmless from any loss, injury or damage to his person or property, however caused and of whatsoever nature, in connection with the Shoreside Expedition.

The tour arrangements may be cancelled at any time at the option of Orion Expedition Cruises or by the operator, in which case the only obligation of Orion Expedition Cruises is to refund to the passenger the consideration already paid.

All Shoreside Expeditions, itineraries, destinations, times of arrivals/departures and prices are subject to change without prior notice and may vary due to unforeseen circumstances or cost variations. If minimum passenger numbers are not reached programs may be cancelled.

Cancellation Policy

Regardless of whether pre-payment is made or not, the following cancellation policy applies to all Shoreside Expeditions. Any cancellation penalties will be applied to the passenger's onboard account or in the event the passenger is not able to travel, against any refund due for passage fare.

For cancellations made 15 days or more in advance, no penalty is applicable for all air-based Shoreside Expeditions. 14 days or less, prior to the date of your shoreside expedition, 100% cancellation penalties apply for all air-based shoreside expeditions: these include flights on seaplanes, mallards, helicopters, and hot air ballooning. No penalties apply for cancellation of other shoreside expeditions prior to the commencement of the voyage. All prices are quoted in AUD and are inclusive of GST where applicable. Notice of cancellation prior to sailing must be in writing and the date upon which notice is received by Orion Expedition Cruises is deemed to be the effective date.
